Being Filled By Filling

If something I've coined
can help another,
I am filled.

If it is a moment of self-reflection,
I am delighted.

Usually however,
what I pen
has more meaning for me, than for anyone who may come upon it.

It has taught me often to look closer and keep doors open.

May they recognize, one and all, their great responsibility and blessing to be 'instruments in the hands of God to bring about this great work' (Alma 26:3)"

It is pleasant to think that [Mary and Martha], and other faithful women who were Christ's disciples, might have met together to learn their part in building the kingdom. They were covenant women like us. They had determined to give the Savior all their hearts. So, too, when the Relief Society was organized, it grew out of our divine calling and our desire to serve, to love, and to care for each other"
