

Proverbs 31 :
10. 13. 25. 27.

Who can find a virtuous
woman? for her price is far
above rubies . . .

She . . . worketh
willingly
with her hands . . .

Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come . . .

She looketh
well to the ways of her household.

Mirror

She looks in a mirror
and sees herself not but a woman far different than that which the world thought

She sees her flaws
sharply
her virtues covered in veil
her reflection only
flat Image lost in two-dimensional

Those around can not convince her view, one sided be three-dimensions
each,
River-Delta-Sea

Look deeper they say
erase the misty view
see with crystal
clarity
the woman who is you.

The woman you are
and ever shall be filled with strength,
love
and ethereal beauty.

President Gordon B. Hinckley:

"I urge you to be modest in your expenditures; discipline yourselves in your purchases to avoid debt to the extent possible. Pay off debt as quickly as you can, and free yourselves from bondage.

Exceeding Great and Precious Promises.

" . . . Gather in the history of your family and prepare the names for the sacred ordinances performed only in the temple. This family research is essential to the work of the temples, and blessings surely will come to those who do that work"

~ President Howard W. Hunter
