

Become an Instrument in the Hands of God: By ❧ Practicing Holiness ❧

"The Lord has called us to do all that we do with
'holiness of heart' [D&C 46:7].

And holiness is a product of covenant living. ...

Holiness prompts the words 'Here am I; send me'

Bonnie D. Parkin, former Relief Society general president:

Holiness is the strength of the soul.

By the side of the way
I left my organ
My books
And grandmother's rocker.

Our way is not to carry
More than we are able
And while I grieve
For that which I can not bear
I rejoice at the road ahead
That is lighter
Because my burdens are gone.

Rejoice in freedom
With me.
Bask in Holiness,
The strength of the soul.

Leave your burdens
By the side of the way.

President James E. Faust, Second Counselor in the First Presidency: "Holiness is the strength of the soul. It comes by faith and through obedience to God's laws and ordinances. God then purifies the heart by faith, and the heart becomes purged from that which is profane and unworthy. When holiness is achieved by conforming to God's will, one knows intuitively that which is wrong."
